GREENEVILLE

A Putnam woman while turning around in her Cadillac car on North street Thursday afternoon crashed into one of the big trees. The only damage done was a bent mud-guard.

Eighth street crossing has been closed to traffic while putting in a new bridge which is badly needed.
 Jeremiah Donovan has moved from Smith street to Gilman street.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lynwood Cray of Preston City attended the exposition in Springfield, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cray had accepted a position with one of the local grocery stores.

There was a large attendance on Thursday morning at the funeral of John P. Casey, Jr., which took place from his home at 408 Central avenue.
 The bearers were the following:
 Patrick J. Casey, John P. Casey, Jr., and James J. Casey, sons of the departed. Thomas Dooley, Thomas Sullivan and Martin Carroll, services were held in St. Mary's church and Rev. William H. Kennedy officiated.
 Henry J. LaFontaine presided at the organ and directed the singing. Mrs.
 T. J. Donovan rendered Some Sweet Day at the ending of the mass. As the body was leaving the edifice the choir sang Nearer My God to Thee. Interment was in St. Joseph's cemetery.
 Father Kennedy read a committal service at the grave. The floral forms were numerous and beautiful which included a pillow from the wife of the deceased, standing wreath. Mr. and Mrs. James P. Casey, Jr., pillow stander James Casey, standing near from Annie M. Sullivan; standing wreath, employees of the black dyeing plans for the coming winter season.

 The officers elected are as follows: Grand Knight, John Daley; deputy grand knight, Horridas Glade; recording secretary, James Hannon; financial secretary, J. J. Donohy; treasurer, E. V. Murphy; chancellor, Archie Moeller; advocate, Nazel Lefebvre; lecturer, George P. Donohy; and guard, John H. Murphy; inside guard, Albert O. Lambert.

The installation of officers is to take place at the next regular meeting of the council. It was voted at the meeting to hold a dance during the first week in October, and the following committee was appointed to take charge of the arrangements: Daniel McSheffery, Jr., chairman; James Hannon, William T. Delaney, Horeddo Fregeau, John H. Murphy, James Mc-Cann and Peter Fletcher.

Arthur Benoit has returned from the ST. MARY'S PARISH BECOMES THE St. Mary's parish on Thursday night honored the boys of Greenville who have seen service in the army and navy during the world war, at a welcome home celebration held in Pulask hall on North Main street. Every service and ex-service man, Catholic and non-Catholic alike, whose home is in Greenville, was accorded a very hearty welcome. The attendance numbered close to a thousand and the evening was a decided success from beginning to end.

The opening number of the program was the Star Spangled Banner and this was followed by an address of welcome by the rector of the parish, Rev. William A. Keefe. The grand march led by Mr. and Mrs. William McLaugherty, the second couple being Thomas Sears of Greenville and Miss Ruth Grant of Taftville.
 There were excellently rendered solos by Nicholas J. Spellman, Edward Connelly and Henry LaFontaine. Community singing under the direction of Mr. Connelly proved a feature of the evening. The dance programme which lasted until midnight, included a number of old fashioned dances and the dancing started Father Keefe called attention to the welcome home celebration to be held at the fair grounds Saturday by the citizens of Norwich and urged all to make an effort to attend.

Rev. William A. Keefe and Rev. W.
 H. Kennedy were in general charge of the evening and were assisted by the following committee: Timothy Carey, Thomas Delaney, William Bowen, Frank J. Murtha, Frank Leonard, William McLaugherty, John Sheehy, Joseph Belliveau, Nicholas J. Spellman, Joseph Barry, Cornelius Downes, John Barry, John T. Sullivan, Joseph Port-elance, Henry LaFontaine, Edward Connelly, William A. Keefe, Patrick Har-tie and Edward Riordan.

William McLaugherty was floor director and Henry LaFontaine was musical director, the music being furnished by LaFontaine's orchestra. Neil Crowley was prompter.
 The between the music served under the direction of the members of the Ladies' Charitable society and the Young Ladies' Sodality. John Sheehy was in charge of the soda water.
 Thomas McLaugherty had charge of the gentlemen's hat room and Miss Margaret Delaney was in charge of the ladies' cloak room. The supper hall was very generously donated by the Kosciuszko-Pulaski society.

Markovich shot Wells as the latter was in his door yard, on July 29.
 Nothing has been developed as to the reason. There had been no disagreement between the two men for as members of the family knew, Mrs.
 Markovich with a child had been staying at the Wells' house. The authorities have thought that Markovich was jealous of his wife and had become angry over her leaving home.
 But even when he surrendered to a Sheriff Tubbs and just who shall have possession is a matter yet to be decided in the courts. It was arranged, however, that pending the hearing on the question both keepers should remain and Judge Maltbie placed the date for the hearing in advance of the date on which the receivers stated that they believed the company funds for releasing the attachments placed upon the property.

ASKS COURT PERMISSION TO SELL REAL ESTATE
 Judge William B. Coit of New London makes application to the superior court for consent to sell property in that city in which he has an interest.
 The application is made in a suit brought against State Attorney Had-lai A. Hull, the Congregational Home Missionary society of New York, the American Board of Commissioners for Mission of Massachusetts.

Judge Coit says that he is heir to one third interest in real estate in Main street and Brainerd street, which came to him by the will of the late Sarah P. Brainerd. The property was sold to his children, but as he has no children, he claims the one-third interest, the remaining two-thirds relating to the defendants, and asks the right to dispose of it as he has a chance to sell it at an advantage. The complainant states that Judge Alfred Coit who is the legal representative of the defendants, has given his consent.

Papers in the suit have been filed with the clerk of the superior court in Norwich.

Woman Looked for Two Years

Elizabeth Garry of 21 Thorne St., Norwich, Conn., looked for two years before she found a medicine that would help her. Yes, Goldine is the medicine.
 She said:

"I was troubled for two years with stomach and nervous diseases. I had a burning sensation in my mouth and couldn't swallow very well. I used medicine a whole lot, but couldn't seem to help myself. Then I used Goldine. My stomach is now much better and the burning feeling in my mouth is gone. I don't have as much gas on my stomach as I did before. I am going to continue to use this medicine as I know it is doing me good."

GOLDINE is sold in Norwich by G. G.
 Engler and all other leading druggists; also in Putnam by H. L. Burt, J. F.
 Donahue, G. E. Dresser, J. J. Dupre, Portland, Me., Merced, Colemaster, H.
 P. Buell, A. T. Van Cleave, Griswold, C. H. Morgan, Groton, C. S. W. Davis; Norwich, R. A. Chapman, Waterford, William Hendrickson, and by leading dealers in Boston, East Lyme, Lebanon, Lyndford, Litchfield, Salem, Voluntown, Brooklyn, Canterbury, Cheshire, Eastford, Hampton, Pomfret, Scotland and Thompson. It won't cost you more than Goldine. In stock have him secure it from the nearest in Norwich, or the Chas. L. Whittelsey Co. of New Haven, Conn.
